CATTLE.—The week opened with a light run on hand, but the cattle trade was steady and active. A few loads of good steers showed up, the best of which brought $7.00 @ $7.50. Briggers and Norton of Chickasha, Okla., had several loads in today. Good cows and heifers sold up to $6.75 @ $8.25 as tops. Odd loads of calves, bulls, brought $4.00. The calf market was steady. Stockers and feeders were scarce today with a good demand for this class.
